

Tim Martin

Editor / Producer

0784 335 0300

Biography:

BAFTA and RTS Award winning filmmaker, Tim Martin, has edited hundreds of television documentaries, feature films, children's programmes and studio based multi-camera shows. Tim's work has appeared on BBC, Channel 4, Channel 5, Sky Atlantic, ABC, CBS, CBC, CTV, ZDF (Germany), ERT (Greece) as well as in theatres and many of the major cable channels. He has worked with such figures as Sir Peter Ustinov, Ellen Page, Des Clarke, Samantha Poling, Mark Daly and John Beaty, among others. As well as editing Tim has also produced 66 episodes of television drama.

Born in Northern Ontario, Canada, Tim now resides in Glasgow, Scotland where he works on projects throughout the UK and Europe. Prior to his editing career Tim was employed by a variety of television stations working on shows ranging from music concerts and dramas to WWF Wrestling. Tim is currently looking for challenging projects and interested in pursuing co-productions.

Prolific in Avid and FCP X NLEs.

Recent awards

Rangers: The men who sold the Jerseys -

Won: BAFTA (Best Current Affairs programme),
Won: RTS award (Current Affairs and News Event)
Won: Foreign Press award (sports story of the year)

Sins of Our Fathers -

Won: BAFTA (Best Current Affairs Programme)
Won: RTS award (Current Affairs and News Event)

Personal Information

Name: Timothy Calvin Martin
Phone: +44 (0)784 335 0300
Email: tcmartin@acanadianineurope.com
IMDB Ref: T.C. Martin in both producer and editor categories.
Citizenship: Dual: Canadian and British

Selected Credits

Television Series

Ctrl+click logos for link to show information

Disclosure

Documentary series examining the issues affecting the lives of people around Scotland.

EDITOR

Panorama

BBC's flagship Current affairs programme, featuring interviews and investigative reports on a wide variety of subjects.

EDITOR

Location Location Location

Various episodes of Channel 4's property programme, presented by Kirste Allsopp and Phil Spencer and produced by IWC Media.

EDITOR

The One Show

Segments produced in Scotland, for playback into BBC's daily magazine show.

EDITOR

The Culture Show

Segments produced in Scotland, for playback into BBC's daily magazine show.

EDITOR

Country Show Cook Off

Chefs Jun Tanaka and Galton Blackiston are on a five day road trip, entering some of the UK's toughest food competitions. Their last stop - and their last chance at snatching glory is at the Henley Show.

EDITOR

■■■

Secret Location

Various episodes of Channel 4's series produced by IWC Media. A property programme that takes location out of the house-hunting equation.

EDITOR

■■■

■■■

Jimmy's Food Factory

Farmer Jimmy Doherty sets up his own food factory in a barn. Using farmyard and household junk, he is creating his own supermarket production line to find out what they are really doing to our food.

EDITOR

■■■

■■■

Strip Search

STRIP SEARCH transformed a group of ordinary young men into an extraordinary professional male revue. It's about fun, warmth, and decent Canadian guys taking it [almost] all off—physically and emotionally—for a chance at a new life and a career.

EDITOR / POST PRODUCTION SUPERVISOR

■■■

■■■

Queen of Swords

A 22 episode female adventure series written in Los Angeles, shot in Spain and posted in Toronto.

Tessa Alvarado, returns to Spanish California to protect the people from the town's governor and to avenge her father's death.

PRODUCER

■■■

■■■

Pit Pony

A 44 episode children's series shot in the remote location of Cape Breton Island. A period drama about a young boy's struggle to get an education in a coal mining town. Starring Alex Wrathell and Ellen Page.

EDITOR

■■■

■■■

Theodore Tugboat

A 130 episode children's series for the CBC. Denny Doherty, singer from the Mamas and Papas, is the Harbour Master and story teller who brings the tales of Theodore Tugboat to life. There is always a new adventure in the Big Harbour.

WRITER / EDITOR

■■■

■■■

Paths of The Gods

A 12 episode documentary series starring Sir Peter Ustinov. European/Canadian co-production shot and edited in Greece. The complex fables of Greek Mythology 'efficiently' brought to life the world's greatest orator.

EDITOR

■■■

■■■

East Meets West

A three episode travel documentary series. Sir Peter Ustinov explores Hong Kong, Thailand and Burma. Three very different countries with one common characteristic.

Lovely people.

EDITOR / POST PRODUCTION SUPERVISOR

■■■

■■■	The Dog Factory	BBC Scotland investigates the multimillion pound world of the dog trade. A third of all dogs bought today are believed to have come from puppy farms.	■■■
■■■	The Innocent Serial Killer?	Scots nurse Colin Norris, dubbed the Angel of Death, is serving a minimum of 30 years in prison for the murder of four elderly patients and the attempted murder of a fifth. Is this the first case in British history of a wrongfully convicted serial killer?	■■■
■■■	Alex Salmond - A Rebel's Journey	As Alex Salmond stands down as first minister, Brian Taylor sets out to discover if anyone truly knows the real Alex Salmond and asks what his political legacy will be.	■■■
■■■	The World's End Murderer	After 37 years, Angus Sinclair is found guilty of the murders of Helen Scott and Christine Eadie. We take a comprehensive look at the long case history, explaining the new evidence which has finally brought Sinclair to justice.	■■■
■■■	Mibbes Aye, Mibbes Naw	We follow a wide range of Scots through the referendum campaign. As the big day grows closer the debates are becoming more heated and our voters are making up their minds.	■■■
■■■	gangsters.com	Samantha Poling investigates the toxic world of online gangsters. In a journey which takes her from the foot soldiers of fraud operating in the back streets of Britain to the organised crime gangs in Moscow's gritty suburbs. She goes on the hunt for those who buy and sell our data..	■■■
■■■	What Women Want	There is a gender gap at the centre of the campaign for Scottish independence. Jackie Bird meets women from all walks of life, trying to determine 'What Women Want' when deciding how to vote.	■■■
■■■	Sins of Our Fathers	Physical and sexual abuse in one of Scotland's most prestigious Catholic boarding schools is revealed. The hidden story of Fort Augustus Abbey and the Catholic monks who ran it. BAFTA and RTS award winner, nominated for Foreign Press Award.	■■■
■■■	Britain's Private War	Former servicemen are dying in Iraq and Afghanistan while on UK Government contracts paid for by the taxpayer with little public knowledge of their deaths.	■■■
■■■	Rangers - The Men Who Sold the Jerseys	As this proud footballing giant stands on the brink of extinction, BBC reveals what went on behind the scenes in the run up to Craig Whyte's infamous takeover. BAFTA, RTS and Foreign Press Award winner.	■■■
■■■	Rangers - The Inside Story	Former servicemen are dying in Iraq and Afghanistan while on UK Government contracts paid for by the taxpayer with little public knowledge of their deaths.	■■■
■■■	Surgery's Dirty Secret	Tools with dangerous defects are being supplied to hospitals. Samantha Poling travels to Pakistan, where the majority of the world's surgical instruments are made. She finds an industry blighted by poor quality control and workers manufacturing tools for £2 a day. Nominated for BAFTA	■■■
■■■	The Curse of Oak Island	Oak Island lies just off the Coast of Nova Scotia, Canada. In 1795 a 200ft. man made pit was discovered. Before any treasure could be revealed, booby traps released and the pit was filled with water. For the next 200 years it has been a mystery which has possessed treasure hunters. 6 people have died trying to solve the mystery.	■■■

■ ■ ■	2014 - Scotland's Historic Year	2014 is a year that will go down in Scottish history. To mark this historic year Sally Magnusson looks at the stories that made the news and shaped Scotland.	■ ■ ■
■ ■ ■	Panorama: Who's Paying Your Doctor	Panorama goes undercover to see the subtle tactics drug companies use to influence which medicines your doctor prescribes.	■ ■ ■
■ ■ ■	Scotland's Top Ten Battlegrounds	BBC has polled Scots from across the country representing the nation, and asked them to rank ten of the most important issues in the referendum. This is a politician-free zone, calling on the country's leading academics and experts, to give straight answers to the key questions.	■ ■ ■
■ ■ ■	Panorama: The Great Fuel Robbery	High value, untraceable and in constant demand, fuel has become the perfect illicit commodity. It is a crime that stretches from drivers filling up at garage forecourts without paying, to a dark and dangerous underworld run by gangsters and former terrorists.	■ ■ ■
■ ■ ■	Panorama: Surgery's Dirty Secrets	Tools with dangerous defects are being supplied to hospitals. Samantha Poling travels to Pakistan, where the majority of the world's surgical instruments are made. She finds an industry blighted by poor quality control and workers manufacturing tools for £2 a day.	■ ■ ■
■ ■ ■	Panorama: Smoking and the Bandits	More than half of all hand-rolled tobacco in the country is now either counterfeit or smuggled, and one in five cigarettes smoked is fake. Samantha Poling buys directly from the criminals, and reveals their products are up to thirty times more toxic than ordinary cigarettes.	■ ■ ■
■ ■ ■	Panorama: Carry on Banking	Mark Daly investigates what has happened in the world of banking since the bailout. Has it all changed since the financial crisis of two years ago, or it is a case of 'Carry On Banking'.	■ ■ ■
■ ■ ■	Panorama: Will the Scots Ever be Happy?	Ten years after devolution the Scots want more power concentrated north of the border, and the Scottish Nationalists want to force a referendum on independence. From Alex Salmond to Gordon Brown to David Cameron, and to Tony Blair, the man who began it all by giving the Scots their Parliament.	■ ■ ■
■ ■ ■	Panorama: What Happens After Sorry?	In February 2009 the bankers responsible, including former RBS chief Fred Goodwin, apologised publicly for their parts in the banking crisis. Now Panorama asks, "What happens after sorry?". Is 'sorry' enough for the people calling for civil, and even criminal, proceedings against RBS.	■ ■ ■

Movies

A Wrinkle in Time

A 4hr. mini-series adaptation of the classic children's novel for Mira-Max Entertainment. World-renowned physicist Dr. Jack Murray and his lab partner Hank are experimenting with fifth-dimension time travel when they suddenly disappear without a trace. Dr. Murray's children - the loving but youthfully awkward Meg and the gifted, eccentric Charles Wallace embark on a perilous quest to other worlds to find them.

Red Green's Tuct Tape Forever

A feature film version of the popular Canadian television show "The Red Green Show".

Pit Pony

The original movie based on the children's book of the same name. This became the pilot for the television series. Starring Ellen Page.

The Girl Next Door

A suspense feature film directed by Eric Till and starring Henry Czerny, Gary Busey and Polly Shannon. Arthur (Henry Czerny) is a middle-aged doctor with a successful practice and a happy marriage. When the 18-year-old daughter of his next door neighbour is found dead, Sheriff Larson (Gary Busey) asks questions which Arthur cannot answer without incriminating himself.

Golden Will: The Silken Laumann Story

Drama based on the heroic determination of Olympic medalist Silken Laumann. Ten weeks before the Barcelona Games her leg was severely injured when a German boat collided with hers. Battling grueling pain and numerous operations, Silken beat the odds and raced in the Olympics, incredibly winning a silver medal.

Lifeline to Victory

Drama based on the heroic determination of Olympic medalist Silken Laumann. Ten weeks before the Barcelona Games her leg was severely injured when a German boat collided with hers. Battling grueling pain and numerous operations, Silken beat the odds and raced in the Olympics, incredibly winning a silver medal.

Education and Employment

2003 – Present	Freelance Producer and Editor working on a variety of projects ranging from Feature Films to New Media programs and live performances.
2001 – 2002	Produced Supershops television series. A documentary series shot internationally.
1999 – 2000	Produced Queen of Swords television series. An action series co-production involving Canada, Britain, USA and Spain.
1998 – 1999	Produced Pit Pony television series. An award winning children's drama shot on the remote location of Cape Breton Island.
1996 - 1998	Freelance DGC editor and post production supervisor. Working on television dramas, documentaries, and feature films.
1992 - 1996	Magnetic Fax Post Production. Editor at Canada's largest and most successful post production house. Programs created varied from music videos to feature films.
1989 – 1991	CityTV Toronto, On. Canada. Editor and sound engineer for CityTVs in house production department. At this time the station produced 13 hours of programming each day.
1987 – 1989	CityTV Toronto, On. Canada Master Control operator and general operations technician.
1986 – 1987	CHCH Television. Hamilton, On. Canada Worked as production assistant for WWF Wrestling and other sports events.
1984 – 1986	Completed Arts Diploma in Radio and Television Broadcasting from Canadore College in North Bay, Canada
1972 – 1984	Completed Primary and secondary school education.